MORE HEAVY TRACK RACING

SLOW TIME AND ACCIDENTS MARK THE SPORT AT NEW ORLEANS.

Carthage Takes the Chief Race in Good Style - Angelus in a Canter-Two Long Shots Win.

New Orleans, La., December 10.—Serious accidents threatened to transpire in two races this afternoon and for a time the crowd was in a high state of excitement in fear of several of the riders who had mounts in the second and fifth races having sustained fatal injuries. That they escaped with slight injuries was considered marvelous. The worst spill came in the second race when four out of twelve starters fell before going a quarter of the six furlongs sprint. The heavy track being liberally besprinkled with drying clods, was chiefly to blame for the accident. In the scramble for positions at the half-mile post, some of the riders who were blinded by the mud and clods, lost control of their mounts, which caused a mix-up and Black Burn went to the ground, to be quickly followed by Flowaway, Prince Fortunatus and Vesta-Mountain, on the latter, and Herbert, on Flowaway, escaped with a shaking up, but J. Lee. on Prince Fortunatus, was badly bruised and his legs were also lacerated by the kicking of the fallen Fogarty, who had the mount on Black Burn, the first to fall, is supposed to have sustained in-ternal injuries and complained of pains in his back.

The second accident came in the fifth race when Refined, ridden by Hufnagel, and Ann Hill, ridden by J. Howard, fell in a heap nearly in the same spot where the previous mishap occurred. Neither of the riders was hurt.

Cold, disagreeable weather marked the second day at the Fair Grounds, but a good crowd was again in attendance. Poor and large fields made the card and the racing was tame and uninteresting. Surprises were numerous.

The defeat of Approbation in the closing race by the extreme outsiders, Nancy and Agile, left a bad taste in the mouth of the close observers. On recent races, the short price quoted against the Texas performer was justifiable and it was only natural that he should receive the bulk of the betting on the race. He trailed distantly for threequarters, was then taken wide into the stretch and finished with a belated rush when the race was nearly over, to get up for third place.

the feature only four started, with Carthage and Lajeunesse the most fancied. Carthage, at the weights, was much the best and would have achieved a hollow victory but for the poor riding of Koerner. He found numerous pockets to steen Carthage into in the first three-quarters and was finally forced to go wide and around the others or the stretch turn, but once clear, the horse easily passed into the lead. Lajeunesse, under a hard drive, took second place from Ed Kane. The spor began with a victory for Angelus, a new comer in these parts from the stable of Burlew & O'Neill.

Coltness, favored by clear sailing and showing a liking for the going, had things his own way in

The third went to the suddenly improved Rickey for which there was a heavy backing. Bertha E., under a skillful ride by the promising Texan. War. ren, coming with a fast rush through the stretch casily won the fifth race. Dargin, the favorite, sulked most of the way and was never a serious contender.

Charles Kiernan, who trains the steeplechase division of the stable which Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., races, arrived here from Aiken, S. C., this morning Kiernan will remain here until after the holidays It is the first vacation that he has had in several years, but he will incidentally combine business with pleasure by keeping an eye on anything that as if it might develop into good jumping material.

Michael Ray, one of the clubhouse commissioners on the metropolitan circuit, got in this morning and will remain for the remainder of the season. Ray will look after the horses in the stable which C. Daly sent here.

Murray has received word from his brother that his useful campaigner, Orbicular, was wintering well at the Morris Farm, near San Antonio, Texas. It is Murray's intention to have Or bicular shipped here about the first of February. He has a yearling brother to Orbicular and also a full brother to Approbation, which will be sent along with Orbicular when he leaves the farm.

Levy's mare, Margaret M., by Woolsthorpe Espionage, will be bred to Smile next spring.

J. J. Ogles reached here from Dallas this morning with four horses. They are stabled at the Oakland

A smooth sharper benefited to the extent of $280 after the victory of Coltness by raising a 1 to 2 place ticket to one reading 180 to 100 straight. The method employed was a simple one. The original ticket calling for $280 had a number of 669, where the $3 ticket was 668. By pasting a nine cut from an old ticket over the figure 8 and getting into the paying line in an advantageous position the cashier promptly paid the amount the ticket called Later the genuine ticket was presented and the bookmaker had to pay it also,

Jockeys B. Burton, Stille and E. Griffin were each suspended for four days by the starter for disobedience at the post.

Now Yearlings in Santa Anita Stakes that Have Received Their Names.

Quite a number of the owners who have made nominations to the Woodlands, Santa Ana and Colin Stakes for two-year-olds of 1908, and which will be run at Santa Anita Park early next year, have names to their youngsters, some good, the majority commonplace and some in bad taste. W. Chamberlain has five, of which the Goldcrest filly, Volga, is said to be speedy. Phil Chinn has named eight, of which only two are by the same sire, Piute and Madeline Musgrave being by Ethelbert. J. Hackett's three are all by his fast old-time cam-paigner, Yellow Tail, and if any one of them has inherited its sire's speed, one or more of those stakes should prove its prey.

The Canadian owner, J. J. Walsh, has four that are well bred, and the colt Nasmerito should prove good one on that score. In Prudent Thomas W. Williams has a half-brother to his fast sprinter, Prejuicio. His other nomination, Quaker, by Alta-max—Shiver, is well named. J. D. Millin, Caesar Young's partner formerly, has four by Cunard, for two of which he has appropriated the names of two of the new liners of the Cunard Steamship Company, Mauretania and Caromia. J. S. Newman has three Texas breds, of which one is a filly by Jack De Mund, from the old-time Chicago favorite, Bessie Bisland. Two by Beau Ormonde will atattention here and are the property of the man who raced Beau Ormonde when he was a real crack. The list of those named is as follows:

PAIR OF BOOKMAKING CHARACTERS.

San Francisco, Cal., December 5 .- Roy Offutt, on of the biggest and most successful operators in the California turf market once taught a Sunday school class in Kansas City, Mo., while Jack Snell, the bookmaker and bettor, now laying prices at Oakland, was the head and front of the Society for the Prevention of Crime in Reading, Pa., for many Both are now grabbing for the almights dollar just like the blackest sinner in the great, motley throng making up the race track world. Offutt was a clerk in the firm of Offutt, Elmore & Clark stock yards commission merchants, of Kansas City, Mo., with a strong religious bent. One day he started to parlay a small sum on second choices running at East St. Louis. He got to studying the "dope." He made a success of playing horses from the start. He now makes books bets and owns horses. Still, he doesn't drink, smoke or play cards. "Betting on the horses is a ousiness, not a gamble," declares Offutt. He won $32,000 bookmaking around New York last summer.

Offutt and Snell are two of the most interesting character studies at Oakland.

August Belmont's Nomination Furnishes the Only Probable Starter-King's Entries.

Several American owners are represented nominations to the Two Thousand Guineas and Epsom Derby of 1908, but August Belmont only mad entries in the St. Leger. He has Norman III., bay colt, by Octagon—Nineveh and Crossbar, bay colt, by Octagon-Lucy Cross in all three events. colts were taken to England when yearlings and both won races this year. It may be taken for granted that if either, or both, winters well and trains in good form next spring, Mr. Belmont will have a try for the big races

Of the two, Norman III. ran best as a two-year old this year. His first start was for the May Plate at the Newmarket First Spring Meeting in which he finished fourth to Little Goose, Hack-His next start was for berry and Cinderello. Molesey Plate, five furlongs at Hurst Park, which he won by four lengths from Cinderello, Damage and three more. At Ascot he ran fourth to White Eagle, Bonspeil II. and the Orvieto-Hush for the Ascot Biennial Stakes, nine others finishing behind isim. Then he won the Exeter Stakes at the Newmarket First July Meeting, defeating Indian Runner and Florial. Indian Runner was the favor ite at 1 to 31, but Norman III. ran away from him won by three lengths. In his next race he ran third to Sir Archibald and Orphah for the Chesterfield Stakes at Newmarket, four finishing placed. At Goodwood he was fourth to Sea King, Aubergine and Aldebaran for the Molecomb Stakes and at Newmarket ran unplaced in the Prendergast Stakes, won by Ednam. At the Newmarket Houghton Meeting he ran third to French Partridge and Primer for the Criterion Stakes and was unplaced in the Dewhurst Plate, won by Rhodora. Not brilliantly successful, he always ran well and is evidently more than useful.

Crossbar ran oftener and did less. He ran unplaced for the July Stakes and Khedive Plate at the Newmarket First July Meeting and the Halnaker Plate at Godwood. Then he won the Brook side Plate at Brighton from Goemon, Gera and six others and at Redcar ran second to Sideview for the Wilton Plate. After that he ran six times without being placed and altogether made the im pression of being decidedly inferior to Norman III. Mr. James R. Keene has Masque, Peter Quince and Incognito in the Two Thousand and Derby. H. P. Whitney has Jersey Lightning, Stamina, Burgher and Bar None in the Two Thousand and Burgher Angelus and Jersey Lightning in the Derby. John E. Madden has Call Boy and King James in the Derby. The Newcastle Stable's Carrollton is a eligible through having been entered by Clar-Outside of the Belmont two, ence H. Mackay. they are the only American eligibles and there is not the slightest probability of any of them being sent across. If Mr. Keene had chanced to nominate Colin, he might be sorely attempted to try another venture in England, but he did not enter Colin. if there is any American hope in connection with next year's Derby, it rests in Mr. Belmont's pair.

King Edward has three nominations for the Two Thousand and Derby, Perrier, Prospective and Court Plaister. Of these only Perrier has started, and he He is a bay colt by Persimme phora and ran second to Rhodora in the Dewhurst Plate. Perspective is a bay colt by Persimmon Spyglass, and Court Plaister a brown colt by Persimmon—Courtly. In the St. Leger the king has these three colts and the fillies Persian Lilac and tica. Persian Lilac is a brown filly by Persimmon-White Lilac that has never started. Simpatica is a brown filly by St. Simon-Laodamia. She started in five races this year, winning the Soltykoff Stakes at the Newmarket Second July meeting in her first essay, and earning a reputation at once that she did not maintain. She ran unplaced in the National Breeders' Produce Stakes at Sandown Park and The Molecomb Stakes at Good wood, finished third to Quelpart and Ardentrive for the Rous Memorial Stakes at Newmarket, and wound up by running unplaced to St. Cyril, Persuasion and Miranda in the Free Handicap on the last day of the Newmarket Houghton meeting. Despite her defeats she is held to be in the first flight of a year of singularly good fillies. But of all the king's horses Perrier is deemed the most promising and none is more likely to be one of the Derby favorites. He is said to be a big, magnificent appearing colt, and of his speed he gave vincing evidence when he finished lapped on Rho dora in the Dewhurst Plate, and in front of Little Goose, Ednam, Vamose, Your Majesty, Norman III., Dibs and Pilgrim's Way. King Edward has not prospered as a turfman since the days of Persimmon and Diamond Jubilee, and a return of for-tune's favor to him would be immensely popular in England

As for the star two-year-olds of the year, Prospector, White Eagle, Ednam, Sir Archibald, mose and Miranda are in the Two Thousand Guineas and the Derby, and such other cracks as Les bia, Mountain Apple, St. Cyril, Rushcutter and Araminta are also in the Derby but not in the Two Thousand. After the usual fashion there it will probably not be long until tentative quotations of odds against these picked ones appear for the two great races.

MR. KEENE'S REPUTED CRACKERJACK.

It is said that the unnamed bay or brown yearling colt by Voter-Costume, which James R. Keene has nominated to run in the Lawrence Realization and Annual Champion of 1909 is the colt which caused so much talk in turf circles several days ago by his reported fast trials on the Sheepshead Bay track.

Los Angeles, Cal., December 10 .- An evenly balnced card brought out a large crowd today, those present finding it a difficult matter to select the The defeat of Waterbury was a hard blow to the talent, as he was regarded as the best bet of the day, but he ran a dull race, finishing outside of the money. Burns bungled matters with him from the start, getting him away slowly and had him in several jams. With better racing luck he should have won and should beat the same kind of horses the next time he starts.

Starter Holtman spoiled the second race by sending the field away with Frank Flittner turned sideways. He was sent after the others and made up much ground and was fast wearing down Kilter in the closing strides, clearly proving that he was easily best.

"WINNIE" O'CONNOR'S PROGRAM.

New York, December 10.-Jockey Winnie O'Conor, who returned to this country from France several days ago for a visit with his parents, decided not to enter in the six-day bicycle race which is being held at Madison Square Garden this week. He intended to do so when he landed, but the manag ment could not see the amount O'Connor wanted, and he therefore declined to appear at the figure offered him. O'Connor expects to go to New Orleans after the first of the year, where he will ride in a number of steeplechases, and says his en-gagement with Weinberg Bros. in Germany will be his last season in the saddle. Next fall, if he follows out his present plans, he will buy a string of horses abroad, mostly of French breeding, and bring them to this country and become an American owner and trainer in 1909.

O'Connor now weighs about 125 pounds, but can reduce to 112 without sacrificing his strength, and says: "I only wish they would raise the scale of weights here, so that I could ride again on this side, for I know that I am in better form than I ever was in my life. I have settled down, amstronger, and have plenty of experience. If I could make anything like the weight my old friends would not have reason to be ashamed of what I would do."

· He is enthusiastic over the way racing is conducted abroad, and says that Americans could learn much from the foreign methods.

"It's more of a sport over there than it is here," he said, "and the crowds that go watch the horses much more closely than they do the betting. They care for time over there at all, but they do keep the tracks in the finest kind of shape. They get much better racing with their high scale than we possibly can here, because the riders are all experienced and strong enough to control their mounts. You don't see lads put on the fence and knocked down in jams as you do here, and as the distances are longer the races are much better and more truly run. The best horse wins nearly every race in France—luck doesn't count every time."

In France last season O'Connor rode for Viscompte d'Arcour and appeared in races on both the flat and over the fences, riding thirty-seven w of flat races and twenty-five in steeplechases

LUCKY NEW MEMPHIS JOCKEY CLUB.

Memphis, Tenn., December 10 .- A suit instituted in chancery by the New Memphis Jockey Club against F. G. Jones, a prominent trotting man and president of the Memphis Trotting Association (Billings Park), to recover $20,000, said to have been paid for a lease of the latter's track it was prevented from using by the anti-racing laws enacted in 1907 in this state, has been settled out of court. The track is owned by C. K. G. Billings, of New York. The jockey club leased it with the sole privilege of giving running races over it when it was alleged Jones and his following had threatened to hold an outlaw meeting here, following the Union Park meeting in St. Louis in 1904. It was claimed that a clause in the lease provided for its annulment in the event of friendly legislation. It is said the jockey club will receive $15,000 as rebate by the settlement.

GALLINULE LEADS ENGLISH SIRES.

Close Race with St. Frusquin Ends in Favor of the Older Horse.

In England it took the finish of the flat racing eason to determine whether St. Frusquin or Gallinule was to head the list of English stallions of 1907, the conflict being finally settled in favor of Gallinule by a narrow margin, mainly because an investigation set on foot by Sporting Life showed conclusively that Slieve Gallion's success Two Thousand Guineas had netted him $1,000 more from forfeits than he had been credited with. This led "Augur" to say in Sporting Life of November

The explicit statement published in the Sporting Life with reference to the winnings of Slieve Gallion during the past season, has, we may take it, resolved all doubts concerning the actual position of Gallinule in the sire list. For weeks Captain Greer's horse and St. Frusquin had been running a neck-and-neck race for the premiership. Two months or so ago Gallinule's supremacy appeared to be unassailable, especially by Mr. Leopold de Rothschild's horse, for there was a margin of something like $30,000 between their two totals. But Lesbia Rhodora came to St. Frusquin's assistance and in the very last week Dusty Miller and Heliotrope gave him a further lift. A very similar due was fought by these two towards the close of the season of 1903. Then, however, St. Frusquin finished with a lead of $241.25, his total being $132, 631.25, and Gallinule's $132,390. In a sense, therefore, the slight balance in favor of Isonomy's son on this occasion is in the nature of poetic justice When we bear in mind the fact that Gallinule was foaled in 1884, and is therefore, rising twenty four, the achievements of his sons and daughters during the past twelve months are very remark able. Most horses when they attain his age are long past their prime, but, like St. Simon, he appears to have been cast in no ordinary mould. only rarely in the annals of breeding that we come across such abnormal cases. Diomed, the first winner of the Derby, was one of them. In 1798, when he was twenty-one years old, Sir Charles Bunbury sold him to an American for $250. His stud fee had gradually been reduced until it touched $10 and apparently his career of usefulness was at an end. But with his deportation to the United States he took a new lease of existence, lived until he was thirty-one, and founded a dynasty of thoroughbreds in the land of his adoption. His son, Sir Archy, was the sire of Timolean, whose son, Boston, was the of the renowned Lexington, who was the sire of Baltinglass' fifth dam. It is not often, then, that we find a sire twenty-three years of age at the head of the list of winning sires. When St. Simon for the last time surpassed all his rivals—for we may assume that he will never again attain to that distinction-he was nineteen years old. That was in 1900, when, mainly as the result of the successes scored by Diamond Jubilee, he had the magnificent total of $293,125. Two years later, however, he all but secured the first place once more with an aggregate of $182,655. On that occasion he was just beaten by his brilliant son, Persimmon, which had a total of $184,340. But St. Simon is in a class by himself, so to speak. He has earned for his owner, the Duke of Portland, stud fees to the value of, approximately $1,250,000 and his stock have won stakes amounting to more than $2,500,000. It is scarcely fair to Gallinule to compare record with that of the Welbeck champion; St. ons only come once in a century. Nevertheless, Gallinule also can boast of some wonderfully fine His stock made their first appearance a race course in 1893, and won $12,750. The following year the total was increased to $27,810. 1897 his offspring won over $45,000 and in 1898 more than double that sum. But perhaps I cannot do better than gi	ve the	complete record in	tabular

form:
Year.	Amt.	Year.	Amt.

Total$1.128.140 It will be observed that in each of the last eight years Gallinule's total has easily run into five figures. If, then, he was somewhat slow in establishing his reputation, he has succeeded splendidly in maintaining it.

Bred by Mr. J. C. Hill, Gallinule is, of course, by Isonomy, out of Moorhen, by Hermit. When a two-year-old he was sold for $25,500 to the late Mr. Abington Baird. He won some good races, but missed scoring in others owing to a weakness for breaking blood-vessels at a crucial moment. It was a mishap of this sort, for instance, which prevented him winning the Lincolnshire Handi-So often had the horse disappointed, that Mr. Baird sold him privately in 1889 to Captain Greer for $5,000 and there were many people Gallinule's services as a stallion were, the first eason he was at the stud at Crotanstown, obtainable without payment. He got eight feals, and seven of them won races in 1893. That was a pretty good start. After that he commanded an ever-increasing fee, and must have brought in fine income these last few years. He is sure to do there are some smart well again next season, for young horses in his group of winners this year.

CREDITABLE CAREER OF SUFFRAGE.

James R. Keene lost about the best filly in his stable at Sheepshead Bay last Monday when his four-year-old chestnut filly, Suffrage, by Voter ston, succumbed to the injuries sustained day last week by slipping from the gangplank leading to the car which was to transport the mare to Castleton Stud at Lexington, where she was to join Court Dress and others in winter quarters. The death of Suffrage fore-shortens a brilliant career on the turf and later as a matron in the stud, if her performances during the two years she raced is any criterion of future worth. frage did not race as a two-year-old, but made her first appearance under colors at Brighton Beach July 16, 1906, in a special-weight race for maiden mares, which she won over Nemesis, Miss Ogden, Cloisteress and eleven others running the six furlongs in 1:15% and ridden by Shaw. In her second race she attracted the attention of the turf world by finishing second to Rose ben at Sheepshead Bay, September 15, at the long odds of 100 to 1 and ridden by the comparatively unknown rider, Myers, and in front of such tried performers as Far West, Dolly Spanker, Big Ben, The Clown, Diamond Flush and others of lesser note. At Gravesend a week later Suffrage defeated Lotus, Jacobite, Consistent and nine others, running the short three-quarters in 1:10, three lengths in front of Lotus at the finish. In this race she was ridden by Radtke, who rode her again in the Manhattan Handicap at Belmont Park, October 12, finishing second to Roseben, with Handzarra third. Suffrage established a new track record for the 7200 METLAKATLA six furlongs straight course at Belmont Park in her fifth race, running it in 1:10 and defeating Frank Lord, by two lengths. She then beat Bertha E. and Silver Wedding after a terrific stretch struggle over a slow course at Jamaica, October 23, and closed her career for the year by giving weight to her opponents and defeating them easily at Aqueduct November 7. Out of seven starts during season Suffrage won five and was second to Rose ben in the other two.

Suffrage established another track record for Aqueduct when she defeated Handzarra in a five furlongs race by cantering the distance in 59%. Her second race as a four-year-old was in the Croton Handicap at Belmont Park when she defeated Jack Atkin by two lengths, Pantoufle, Roseben, Frank Gill, Dreamer and Brookdale Nymph beaten off. In her third race this year, which was an all-age handicap for fillies, she defeated Brookdale Nymph by two lengths at Gravesend, running the short course in 1:09%. In all of her subsequent race she gave weight to all of her opponents save Rose ben, when the "Big Train" beat her for the third time at Brighton Beach by a length, carrying 140 pounds to her 127. Suffrage only won one after this effort and was unlucky in most of her races by meeting interference and was the of several of the listless rides for which Walter Miller was so severely criticised last summer. Suf frage ran her last race at Aqueduct when she was beaten by Hessian in an all-age race last month The tabulated record of her two seasons on the

FRED FOSTER'S ENGLISH FABLE.

Fred Foster is at Oakland threatening to race in America next season and to show a jockey of great ability to the American racing public. Foster has not got any horses yet, but threatens to get The jockey is a Chicago boy named J. Brady. Foster says to the San Francisco Chronicle: "Young Brady rode a lot of winners in England, winning, among other races, the First Nursery Handicap for two year-olds, at Gatwick with Athlete, a colt which carried 128 pounds and ran six furlongs in 1:112. The boy is pronounced by Foster a finished ride; and can do 100 pounds, will soon take out a license to ride at Oakland, and with that in view is not getting himself into condition."

Athlete, according to the English records, is a three-year-old French-bred chestnut colt by Chevale d'Or-Cendritha. Phillips had him this and he ran twelve times and didn't win. In 1906 Athlete, for Never Beat, was out in another dozen races and won two minor events in Ireland. one at Limerick and another at Phoenix Park, Dublin The Dublin race, worth about $1,000, was the Sutton Nursery Plate, and Athlete won it with 123 pounds up. All the others had high weights under the rules and the lot was poor. Brady rode Athlete in this Dublin race, but in the even poorer race at Limerick, the $500 Kyle Plate, Walkington was Clearly, Athlete was no star. Foster's fable is a year late upon its historical side. Athlete's alias of Never Beat suggests the fact that Foster raced and trained the colt in 1906.

OAKLAND RIDERS AND THEIR WORK

In commenting on the riders on the coast, an east ern writer declares that the best work just now is being done by Charles Ross, who rides for bookmaker Roy Offutt. Ross will be remembered as having ridden in the east two years ago. Suffering a series of accidents, he slumped to nothing and soon returned west. A year's recuperation has given him back all the confidence and budding style which marked his early appearance at Sara toga. He has grown and become stronger. one here can outfinish him, while his judge of pace is excellent. Many a good judge declares Ross to be the best boy in the country today. He has beaten both Miller and Dugan while riding an inferior horse more than once recently.

The same writer opines that Miller is less than at his best and says: "Miller is feeling the effects of four years' grind, summer and winter, for his style just now is slow and listless. Naturally he is winning a lot of races, for he is getting the pick of the mounts, but he is not the same hustling kid of two years ago. Miller has developed into a gilt-touched sport. In the evening hour you may see him saunter into Thompson's fashionable restaurant on O'Farrell street, accompanied by some young millionaire of the town. Miller dresses in the latest mode, while his penchant for diamonds is the reigning gossip of his fellow riders. He wears a $2.500 diamond ring, the gift of Blair Paynter of New York. Tod Sloan may be outdone in sartorial effect by the 'Marvelous One' in due course of time. Miller is beginning to feel the lure of the gay white lights. Of course, that is the signal for four bells on his jockey career.

Radtke looks more like a steeplechase jockey now than a race rider. His old ambition has sim mered down, while his paunch has swollen with the good things of the table and the bar. Radtke likes the prize fighters. Back of Frankie Neil's corner in the recent Moran-Neil fight, sat Radtke. won't work for a firm which requires his services in the early morning gallop hours.

Little Dugan is trying hard. Next to Ross, he is the best light boy around here. For a 102-pound jockey he is a veritable Samson. He can make a heavy-headed horse believe he is a five furlong sprinter in that last stretch furlong.

G. Burns is auxious and enthusiastic, but he has to learn a lot when he flies along with Knapp, Miller and Dugan. They say he is inclined to scare when they pin him on the rail. He differs from his brother Tommy in this respect, Burns stands as the jockey dare-devil of the age. W. W. Finn of St. Louis has a fine light boy in Heatherton. If an eastern owner wants to pick up a find, grab Heatherton. Harry Stover's boy, C. is a rarely promising youngster, too. Lynch and Buxton are the best of the rest.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

J. J. Nagle, who has been racing in Texas, is on his way to Oakland with his string.

Trainer John Huggins, of the H. B. Duryea stable, has left New York for a visit to his farm in Texas.

James Rowe has deserted his charges at Sheeps head Bay for a few days and will pay a visit to relatives in Toledo, Ohio. A night school for stable boys has been inaugurated at Sheepshead Bay. Two rooms are used, one being set aside for colored boys. Jockey W. Knapp has arrived at Los Angeles from Oakland and denies the report that he was married shortly before leaving San Francisco. Emil Herz is busily operating "on the ground" at Oakland and making plenty of action about him, but from all accounts is not gathering much of a J. C. Schmuck and James Crooks are two Canadian turfmen who will spend the winter at Los Angeles. They expect to put on a book in the ring within a few days. The chestnut filly by St. Gatien-Turmoil, from the Hildreth stable, which ruptured a blood vessel in her shoulder while working on the track at Oak-land Thursday, has been destroyed.

John E. Madden has shipped twenty horses, including Salvidere, from Sheepshead Bay to Benning, where they will be wintered, together with eighteen head now at the Washington Jockey Club course

James H. McCormick has had a couple of houses built on Neck Road at Sheepshead Bay and will occupy one of them next year. He is not winter-ing any horses at the track, all of them being in New Orleans. James McLaughlin has returned to Gravesend from Benning with the horses which he handled during the Washington meeting. He will probably not race his horses at New Orleans owing to the illness of his wife. W. C. Daly has shipped his horses from Washington to Gravesend, where they will rest up for a few weeks before shipping to Hot Springs, if Daly finally decides to go south. He is spending a few weeks at his Connecticut farm near Hartford. R. T. Offutt has shipped fourteen horses to Los Angeles from Oakland for racing at the new track. Offutt has ten yearlings at Ascot Park, which were bred at the breeding farm of Samuel Watkins at Petersburg, Ill., and are by the two sires, Peter McCue and Nimrod.

Winner—B. g, by Peep-o'Day—Reve Royal (trained by O. Johnson).

Went to post at 1:44. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.

Ed B. outbroke the others and set the pace throughout, but barely lasted long enough. Wap, away slowly, closed a tremendous gap and just failed to get the decision in a cyclonic rush. Uncle Sam maintained close, game and persistent pursuit of the winner throughout. Hand-me-down, away poorly, made up much ground and is improving fast. Vronsky, from a flatfooted start, steadily improved his position into a fast going lifth. High Gnu and No Father finished close up. Merritt Buxton showed speed, but failed to stay. Winner—Ch. g., by Serrano—Hettie Green (trained by W. S. Williams).

Went to post at 3:28. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily: second and third driving. Carthage was given a listless ride for the first three-quarters and was in numerous pockets, forcing him to fall' back and had to be ridden hard while going around each turn, but drew away in the final furlong and won well in hand. Laljeunesse raced Ed Kane Into defeat in the first three-quarters, but was in the worst going through the stretch and tired near the end. Ed Kane set a fast pace to the stretch turn, but tired after a sharp struggle with Lajeunesse. Hawkama was outpaced all the way and can do much better.

Overweights—Carthage, 2 pounds; Hawkama, 1½.

Winner—B. f, by Hastings—Nineveh (trained by J. Garson).

Went to post at 4:29. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Nancy, running to her best form and showing superior speed, took a long lead at once and won all the way with plenty in reserve. Agile showed improved form, moved up steadily from a slow beginning into nearest pursuit and finished gamely. Approbation ran a bad race, was a distant trailer for the first three-quarters and went wide into the stretch, then finished with a rush. Katie Powers ran fairly well and liked the going. Mortiboy showed early speed, but ran a bad race and can do much better. The Clausman quit after going a half and ran far below his best form. The winner was entered for $1,000; no bid. Overweights—Agile, 1 pound; Approbation, 2; The Clausman, 1.
